Liability Release Form

Georgia State Law

“WARNING”. Under Georgia law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.” O.C.G.A. s 4-21-1

I, _____, the undersigned, acknowledge the inherent risks in riding, working and interacting with horses, which risks include bodily injury from using, riding or being in close proximity to horses, among other risks, and further, that both injury and/or death can occur to both horse and rider during normal use or in competition and schooling.

I have read and understand the above stated law and freely and voluntarily choose to participate in equine activities at Big Horse Stable. I know the inherent risks and will not hold Big Horse Stable, the owner, employees or anyone else directly or indirectly connected to the stable, liable for any injury or death resulting from equine-human interaction and activities.

I understand that I may be using equipment provided by Big Horse Stable while participating in equine related activities and will not hold the stable liable for any injuries or death that may occur as a result of equipment failure.

I also understand that I will take full responsibility for any and all guest that I may bring to Big Horse Stable. The stable, owner, employees and anyone directly or indirectly connected with Big Horse Stable will not be held liable for any harm, injury or death that may occur to the participant's guest(s).
